Miles Davis & Marcus Miller - Music From Siesta (1987)

01. Lost in Madrid, Pt. 1
02. Siesta - Kitt's kiss - Lost in Madrid, Pt. 2
03. Theme for Augustine - Wind - Seduction
04. Submission
05. Lost in Madrid, Pt. 3
06. Conchita - Lament
07. Lost in Madrid, Pt. 4 - Rat dance - The call
08. Claire - Lost in Madrid, Pt. 5
09. Afterglow
10. Los feliz
Personnel: Miles Davis - trumpet Marcus Miller - bass John Scofield - acoustic guitar on "Siesta" Omar Hakim - drums on "Siesta" Earl Klugh - classical guitar on "Claire" James Walker - flute on "Los Feliz" Jason Miles - synthesizer programming

This collaboration between Miles Davis and producer Marcus Miller (who, except for some cameos, plays all of the other instruments) is quite successful and a bit of a surprise since it is essentially a soundtrack to an obscure film. Dedicated to arranger Gil Evans, the music is greatly influenced by his style with Miller creating an electrified but very warm orchestra to accompany Davis' melodic solos. This was the first of several instances in which Miles Davis, in the twilight of his life, returned to his roots. It's worth searching for. ---Scott Yanow, All Music Guide download (mp3 @320 kbs):

uploaded yandex 4shared mega mediafire solidfiles zalivalka cloudmailru oboom

back