The prestigious Blues-Rock label Pepper Cake presents another live album by the British Blues-Rock guitarist and singer Innes Sibun. This masterpiece is named "Can not slow down (live at the Estrado)" and it will delight you with captivating energy and long solos. This is his fourth album on the renowned German Rock Blues-label. ---amazon.com

I saw Innes Sibun at The Great British Rock and Blues Festival in January. They were absolutelty amazing, so I bought their current CD, Lost in the Wilderness, which is OK but not a patch on the live experience. Can't Slow Down is the real deal. This is the live band I remember seeing. If you like blues rock like Joe Bonamassa, you will love this and you will realise that they are every bit as good as JB. It's criminal that they aren't better known. Don't miss a chance to see them live, sell your granny if necessary, you won't regret it. --- Mr. William Jw Watson, amazon.com
