The Adam Hole and Marji Curran Band have been getting audiences stirred up all over Australia and beyond with their high energy, foot stomping roots, blues and rock. White hot raunchy slide, powerful vocals and driving beats get people up on their feet with an uncontrollable urge to move every part of their bodies, they are mesmerized, all their senses are stimulated at once by whats going on in front of them. Adam Hole plays slide guitar like a demon possessed, he belts out originals and his own unique versions of some classic old blues songs with a vengeance. Marjis songs are powerful, passionate, heartfelt, and are delivered with a voice that gets down and dirty one minute then has you soaring like an angel the next. Pheobe Juskevics on drums tops it all off with her experimentally eclectic driving rythms. She will take you on a journey playing anything from a jerry can to chinese gongs...shes busy and bold and gets it all jumpin. This band are a fusion of different genres and have created a new sound of their own which is refreshingly different. There is no way you can pigeon hole this band, they put on a show that will have you feeling like you have jumped on a freight train and are being taken on one hell of an exciting ride. Get on board and you will see why this band are making waves wherever they go. --- cdbaby.com
