Front Rowe Center is an invitation to experience - up close and personal - the evolving blues of guitarist Steve Rowe. The rich tones of his guitar stimulate your senses like vintage whiskey, mellowed with age, warm and welcoming in one breath, sultry and demanding in the next. Aged to perfection, steeped with experience, Front Rowe Center offers the listener a strong, powerful set of blues the way it was meant to be played - with all the passion and feeling that can be mustered. --- steverowe.com
