

Norton Buffalo & Roy Rogers - Roots Of Our Nature (2002)

Written by bluesever

Wednesday, 13 February 2019 16:46 -

Norton Buffalo & Roy Rogers - Roots Of Our Nature (2002)

1. Don't Throw Your Changes On Me - 3:49 2. All I Want - 3:41 3. Under The Rug - 3:23
4. Requiem - 4:11 5. If I Were A King - 5:34 6. Ritmo de las Almas (Rythm Of The Souls) -
4:51 7. Making New Love Out Of Old - 3:07 8. Long Hard Road - 4:50 9. Trinity - 4:09 10.
Deny And Down The Distance - 5:16 11. Seven Hearts - 6:23 12. Highway Bound - 4:23 13.
Happy Go Lucky - 2:49 Norton Buffalo - Lead Vocals, Harmonica Roy Rogers - Lead
Vocals, Guitar, Percussion Rich Girard - Acoustic Bass, Electric Upright Bass Jim Sanchez -
Drums Doug Harman - Cello James Henry - Congas, Shaker, Chimes Jeremy Cohen - Violin
Scoop McGuire - Acoustic Bass

In an intimate acoustic setting, Norton Buffalo and Roy Rogers present a set of original tunes whose flavor suggests roots much further back in time. Aside from a few tasteful string parts, Roots is all about crisp finger-picked and slide guitar, Buffalo's earthy and expressive harmonica, and each artist's agreeably unpolished vocals. Their lyrics embrace traditional imagery, from saloon balladry to ramblin' songs. On "Trinity" the words sustain an especially rustic eloquence through multiple verses dedicated to visions of salvation. If retro affectation bothers you, it's best to imagine this session transpiring on some snowy night, within the glow of an iron stove at some crossroads general store. When heard on these terms, Roots can cast a spell to remember. ---Robert L. Doerschuk, AllMusic Review download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto gett bayfiles

Norton Buffalo & Roy Rogers - Roots Of Our Nature (2002)

Written by bluesever

Wednesday, 13 February 2019 16:46 -

back