

Downchild Blues Band - Gone Fishing (1989)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 29 August 2016 14:51 - Last Updated Wednesday, 23 December 2020 12:31

Downchild Blues Band - Gone Fishing (1989)

1. It Isn't Right 2. A Girl I Love To Love 3. Gone Fishing 4. A Talk With My Heart 5. Don't Make My Baby Mad 6. When I Say Jump 7. Already Said Goodbye 8. Rockin' Little Boogie 9. Howlin' For My Darlin' 10. A Feelin' So Good 11. Uphill And Cold Weather Donnie Walsh – harmonica, guitar, slide Richard "Hock" Walsh – vocals Gene Taylor – piano Pat Carey – saxophone Dennis Pinhorn - bass Marty Vickers – drums + Michael Fanfara - organ Pat Rush - guitar Peter Jeffrey - trumpet

Unequaled in Canada and virtually without peer around the world, the Downchild Blues Band is a musical juggernaut that has nurtured the legacy of classic blues for nearly a half-century. Downchild founder Donnie Walsh loved the blues so much as a teen he launched his own band, gradually becoming recognized as a stellar harmonica player and an expressive guitar stylist. The band became a touring legend, giving many thousands of take-no-prisoners performances all around North America. Aside from being the inspiration for Dan Aykroyd and John Belushi's legendary The Blues Brothers, Downchild has recorded two dozen albums and won innumerable Maple Blues Awards and Junos. --- ajazzvictoria.ca download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ge.tt

Downchild Blues Band - Gone Fishing (1989)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 29 August 2016 14:51 - Last Updated Wednesday, 23 December 2020 12:31

back