

John Clifton – Let Yourself Go (2015)

Written by bluesever

Friday, 23 October 2015 16:06 - Last Updated Monday, 08 March 2021 15:54

John Clifton – Let Yourself Go (2015)

01 – Let Yourself Go 02:59 02 – The Gamble 02:25 03 – Beer Joint 04:18 04 – Would You Understand 03:17 05 – Big John From Mississippi 03:15 06 – Anytime Is Cool 03:19 07 – Dig Yourself 02:27 08 – Have Your Way Baby 02:02 09 – Buddy Buddy Friends 01:43 10 – Garbage Day 05:11 11 – Tell Me Baby 04:37 12 – Everytime You Come Around 03:25 13 – Big Man In A Small Town 02:18 John Clifton – harmonica, vocals Matt 'The Kid' – bass John Shaffer - drums Bill Clifton - guitar

John Clifton from Fresno California is a blues harmonica player, guitarist, and vocalist with remarkable style and originality. He is a veteran of the west coast blues scene having traveled worldwide performing since the late 1980's.

He is best known for his work with the Central California blues group The MoFo Party Band. He formed with his brother in 1989. They've played many festivals and clubs all over the USA, Europe and South Pacific regions.

John Clifton as a solo artist has performed notable shows with The Mark Hummell Harmonica Blowout that featured Huey Lewis, John Mayall, James Cotton and other greats, The Austrian Boogie Festival in Vienna Austria, Blues Express Festival in Poland, and Blues Night in Fredrikshaven Denmark.

He is a producer and songwriter; many of his original compositions get regular worldwide radio airplay. As a record producer he has award winning recordings such as The Boogie Boy's from Poland's 2012 "Made in Cali" won Polish Blues Top Award for "Album of the Year" (featuring 3 of John's original songs).

John Clifton – Let Yourself Go (2015)

Written by bluesever

Friday, 23 October 2015 16:06 - Last Updated Monday, 08 March 2021 15:54

John Clifton is a consummate performer with a love for the stage, he is energetic and entertaining and a veteran at his craft. An avid record collector music historian and story teller.

John has a new CD release that will make it's official debut October 16th 2015 on Rip Cat Records. The CD titled "Let Yourself Go" is 13 hard hitting songs. John explores different styles of blues soul and 50's r&b. 6 tunes written by John and 7 of his favorite obscure songs makes this a potpourri of the sound in John's mind. There are some great gusts including Rusty Zinn, Kid Ramos, Bob Welsh Roger Perry and many others. This CD is a true gem, keep an eye out for it. --- johncliftonmusic.com download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto solidfiles global-files

back