On "Tell me" Meena's expressive voice and a highly competent band led by Chris Fillmore, take us on a magical blues journey. The trip is never dull as they traverse a varied sonic landscape full of emotional highlights. All 12 songs are self-penned and the sound spectrum reaches from steaming roadhouse blues to dark and slow-burning blues sermons that put the listener right into the Mississippi backwoods. Tell me is a great album and comes highly recommended.
