Norway's most exciting Blues/Rock group is without a doubt, The Betty Blackmail Band. Their latest release is "Murky Waters" and the Soul Man had the privilege of talking to them about this new recording. Scroll down to hear the interview. Soul Man's favorite track: Hell or High Water Can't miss tracks: Murky Waters, Let's Get Fat and Winter Blues. All the songs are strong; well composed and arranged; overall a must have for any collector of great Blues and Rock! You will wear this one out, it's that good. Stein Hanssen is a remarkable guitar player, songwriter and producer. Berit Hanssen is a voice to be reckoned with, haunting and soulful. A blues vocalist reminiscent of the American Delta. Few have captured the spirit of the Blues like they have. They are a great team and they surround themselves with a first class rhythm section. John "Mini" Kamphaug on bass and John Eirik Nilsen on drums. The future is something to behold for this extraordinary band! ---Garry Goldsmith, amazon.com

Betty Blackmail Band used to be known as "The B* and the Bluesmen". The original name of the band was ment to be a joke of some sorts, but somehow it stuck to the band in the longer run. Due to some degree of censorship and some promotors/venues unwillingness to see the name as the joke it was ment to be, the band decided to change the name to "Betty Blackmail Band" as the band's second album is getting ready for release. The music, the attitude and the energy of the band remains unchanged though - as Led Zeppelin said it - the song remains the
