Debbie Davis – Love The Game (2001)

1. Love The Game 3:50 2. Can't Live Like This No More 4:15 3. Fired Up 4:34 4. Down In The Trenches 4:50 5. Worst Kinda Man 3:15 6. Can't Find The Blues 3:07 7. Was Ya Blue 3:35 8. I'm Just Your Fool 3:35 9. Leading Me Home 3:51 10. Funky Little Teapot 3:28 11. She's Takin' Notes 3:30 12. Keep Your Sins To Yourself 2:51 13. Grow Up, Grow Old 4:43
Musicians: Debbie Davies (vocals, guitar); Coco Montoya, Duke Robillard (guitar, background vocals); Doug James, "Sax" Gordon Beadle (saxophone); Bruce Katz (piano, organ); Alan J. Hager (bass); Don Castagno (drums).

Debbie Davies is more than an exceptional guitarist she is also a prolific songwriter and performer releasing her 8th CD in 8 years with 13 new original tunes. One can only sustain such a pace if they truly "Love The Game" and it is clear that Davies does just that.

"Love The Game" is Davies finest release since the 1999 release of "Tales From the Austin Motel". Prior to that, she hasn't released a CD of this quality since her debut CD in 1993, "Picture This".

On this disc, Davies playing is dead on and the lyrics are well composed. Check out "Fired Up" an instrumental that would be equally at home on any Albert Collins CD or the Bonnie Raitt sounding "I'm Just Your Fool". If there is a clunker on this disc, it would be the nonsensical "Funky Little Teapot".

This CD should please most blues fans and keep Davies fans satisfied for the next 18 months or until her next release. --- deepbluereview, amazon.com
