

Lightnin' Hopkins - Smokes Like Lightning (1962)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 23 July 2012 18:33 - Last Updated Thursday, 01 April 2021 09:11

Lightnin' Hopkins - Smokes Like Lightning (1962)

1. T Model Blues 2:46 2. Jackstropper Blues 3:22 3. You Cook All Right 4:15 4. My Black Name 3:59 5. You Never Miss Your Water 2:36 6. Let's Do The Suzie Q 3:39 7. Ida Mae 4:35 8. Smokes Like Lightning 5:11 9. Prison Farm Blues 4:35 Lightnin' Hopkins (vocals, guitar); Billy Bizer (harmonica); Buster Pickens (piano); Donald Cooks (bass); Spider Kilpatrick (drums).

One of the most weirdly compelling elements of Smokes Like Lightning is Mack McCormick's liner notes, reproduced from the original 1963 LP. Almost breathtaking in their ferocity, McCormick's notes characterize Hopkins as a spoiled crybaby whose only redeeming quality is his ability to make music. The album, recorded in three 1962 sessions, consists simply of Hopkins and his guitar, except for three songs that are performed with a full band. The sound is spare and very loose, with a re-recording of "T Model Blues" and the dance song "Let's Do the Susie-Q," a musical exhortation that seems unlikely to inspire dancing. A brief and uneven album, Smokes Like Lightning is less compelling than Hopkins' '50s recordings, but strikes an appealingly lazy acoustic groove. ---Greg Adams, allmusic.com download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto solidfiles global.files

Lightnin' Hopkins - Smokes Like Lightning (1962)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 23 July 2012 18:33 - Last Updated Thursday, 01 April 2021 09:11

back