

Lightnin' Hopkins - Nothing But The Blues (1962)

1 Life I Used To Live 2:53 2 My Little Kewpie Doll 2:26 3 Sittin' Down Thinkin' 2:48 4 My Baby's Gone 2:50 5 Hear Me Talkin' 2:19 6 Don't Think Cause You're Pretty 2:45 7 Nothin' But The Blues 2:28 8 Hopkins' Sky Hop 2:18 9 Lightnin's Boogie 2:40 10 Lightnin's Stomp 2:44 11 Blues For My Cookie 2:32 12 Evil Hearted Woman 2:44 Lightnin' Hopkins – guitar, vocals

In 1920, Hopkins met the legendary Blind Lemon Jefferson at a social function and got a chance to play with him.

His cousin was Texas Alexander. While they were playing together in Houston in 1946, he was discovered by Lola Anne Cullum of Los Angeles' Aladdin Records. Hopkins first recorded with pianist Wilson Smith and the pair were dubbed 'Lightning' & 'Thunder' to add some dynamic to their marketing.

Strong recordings followed from Hopkins, such as his song "Mojo Hand" (1960). He later inspired many artists such as Jimmie Vaughan, Townes Van Zandt and Ron "Pigpen" McKernan. --- discogs.com download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire mega ulozto solidfiles global.files

back