“At the age of 75 he released an album with the Bernie Pearl Blues Band called ‘Papa Blues’, his first album in 15 years as well as his first totally blues album. The album shows him to be remarkably creative, confident and energetic. The jump blues arrangements do the material justice and the quivering glissandos for which Creach was known sound fresher than ever. His playing is alternately sweet and gritty, the singing soulful, and the material mostly new. This is the album for which he should be remembered.” ---Paul E. Comeau, Dirty Linen, cdbaby.com
