The Songs Gathered Here Represent a Very Wide Range of Blues Inspired Songs. Broad in Sound They May Be but They all Share a Similar Blues Theme; That of Love, Its Many Facets and Guises. They Are Songs that Offer to Share Your Pain Like "Ruler of My Heart" Sung by the Delectable Norah Jones, Songs of Personal Tragedy Like "Another Man Done Gone" by Vera Hall Made Famous by the Impulse Advert, Songs of Racial Pride Like "Brown Skin" by India Arie. This is Blues that Heals and Tears at the Heart, that Makes You Feel You Can Survive Or You Might as Well Die. The Greats Ella Fitzgerald, Nina Simone, Etta James and Debra Laws Are all Represented Here Supported by a Liberal Sprinkling of the New School Like Norah Jones and India Arie. ---Editorial Review
