

Cherubini (1)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 05 December 2011 16:55 - Last Updated Tuesday, 01 October 2013 15:20

Luigi Cherubini

1. Medea (Flv)

525 MB

Anna Caterina Antonacci - Medea Giuseppe Filianoti - Giasone Cinzia Forte - Glauce Sara Mingardo - Neris Giovanni Battista Parodi - Creonte Chorus and Orchestra of the Teatro Regio di Torino Evelino Pido - conductor, 2008

Médée is a French language opéra-comique by Luigi Cherubini. The libretto by François-Benoît Hoffmann (Nicolas Étienne Framéry) was based on Euripides' tragedy of Medea and Pierre Corneille's play Médée. The opera was premiered on 13 March 1797 at the Théâtre Feydeau, Paris. It met with a lukewarm reception and was not immediately revived. During the nineteenth- and most of the twentieth-century, it was usually performed in Italian translation as Medea, with the spoken dialogue replaced by recitatives not authorised by the composer. More recently, opera companies have returned to Cherubini's original version.

download: uploaded mega 4shared mixturecloud yandex

back