Historic show at the Royal Albert Hall, professionally recorded and filmed but shelved for several decades. Released on the 2003 official dvd. The quality is pretty good. "We're Gonna Groove" is one of the grooviest, strongest songs in their whole discography, with an unstoppable drum beat. "White Summer/Black Mountain Side" is a fantastic 12min guitar solo by the only and great Mr. Jimmy Page. In "Dazed And Confused" Plant's voice is just so full of soul, youll almost want to cry. The second solo song on the album "Moby Dick" this time is John Bonham and his atonishing drums. They were so excited when playing "How Many More Times" that they just bended it with "The Lemon Song". There is a big dispute regarding when was "Bring It On Home" played before or after "Whole Lotta Love", many say it was the first encore, but Led Zeppelin website says it isn't. Who are we going to believe. The band was really stressed out because many famous musicians had tickets for this show. John Lennon, Eric Clapton and Jeff Beck are just a few of them. Great concert, from one of the best bands in the whole world LED ZEPPELIN
