1. By Those Who Knew Him Best 2004 (Rmvb)

200 MB

Jim Hendrix's tenure as a rock superstar only lasted a brief four years, yet his experimentation, innovation, and showmanship changed the vocabulary of rock music forever. Hendrix was a virtuoso guitar player with a pop sensibility, creating a new kind of psychedelia that blended the genres of R & B, soul, and blues with folk and guitar rock, as well as new styles that incorporated the wah-wah pedal, lightning riffs, and feedback. But his career and personal life were fraught with trouble as Hendrix vacillated on his lineup, which direction he wanted to take his music, and fell deeper into drugs, which culminated in his death in 1970. This illuminating documentary tells his story through the eyes of those who were closest to him, including family members and friends who have not been heard from previously, as well as those who worked closely with him during his career. All of these voices combine to create an eloquent and intimate portrait of one of the greatest guitarists who ever lived.

2. The Complete Story 2007 (Rmvb)

200 MB

This is an old movie "by those that knew him best" that is repackaged and sold as a different movie. The movie consists of several people, and his brother Leon, talking about what they remember. Nothing new, obviously just an attempt to make money from some old artists that briefly played with Hendrix as kids.

Live At Monterey:

Killing Floo

Foxy Lady

Like a Rolling Stone

Rock Me Baby

Hey Joe

The Wind Cries Mary

Purple Haze

Wild Thing

Chelmsford, England - February 25, 1967

Stone Free

Like a Rolling Stone

One of the most startling, exciting live performances in rock history is presented here in all its glory. The Jimi Hendrix Experience were already making a name for themselves in England but were little known in the States when they appeared at Monterey in June 1967; that all changed after this gig, which saw Hendrix and his trio play an electrifying mix of originals ("Purple Haze," "Foxy Lady," "The Wind Cries Mary") and covers ("Hey Joe," "Like a Rolling Stone," and the climactic "Wild Thing," in which the guitarist set his instrument on fire).

As an extra special bonus to the DVD, watch the earliest known film and sound recordings of The Jimi Hendrix Experience in concert from February 25, 1967 before a packed audience in Chelmsford, England. Songs featured are "Stone Free" and "Like A Rolling Stone."
