Simón Bolívar Youth Orchestra of Venezuela Eduardo Mata – conductor Cuarteto Latinoamericano

Mexican composer Revueltas had everything you want in a great composer: he was emotionally troubled, idealistic, alcoholic, and he died young. His music is like his life: intense, feverish, wild, and unlike anything by anyone else. Sensemaya means "The Chant Used to Kill a Snake," or something like that, and it's kind of like a hypnotic, Mexican Boléro. Redes (Nets) is a vibrant film score that the composer arranged as an orchestral suite. Along with the two splendid pieces by Orbon and Ginastera, this disc of Latin American masters deserves an honored place in every collection of great 20th-century music. --David Hurwitz, amazon.com

El Sensemayá de Silvestre Revueltas es la obra más compleja del compositor, inicialmente compuso una versión para barítono y conjunto de cámara en 1937 y un año después orquestaría y desarrollaría más esta pieza, Sensemayá era un poema del poeta cubano Nicolás Guillén, Revueltas escuchó este poema a viva voz del poeta y le llenó de inspiración para crear
