The Choir " POLYPHONIC CHAMBER CHOIR BELARUS " in Minsk (founded by Dr. Olga Ivanova ) was born in 2010 and consists of 20 items, all with a great music experience developed over years of career in the chorus of conservatives Belarusian state . The POLYPHONIC BELARUS enjoys the patronage of the Union of Writers of Belarus one of the most important cultural organizations in the country that not only unites writers and intellectuals but plays an active and important role in the promotion and development of the national culture.

The " POLYPHONIC CHAMBER CHOIR BELARUS " is an eclectic group with a vast repertoire ranging from sacred songs , the compositions of classical and contemporary authors , all interpreted with its own style of great charm and high artistic level.

An important role in the repertoire covers music and singing by the Belarusian , who over the centuries have been one of the most beautiful and developed forms of artistic expression , inspiration , today, for many national artists : the songs linked to ancient pagan rites , religious chants Christmas and Easter , or those that trace the life in the camps in the wake of the ancient tradition, expression of a people that is strongly linked to their cultural roots. ---
