Brahms - Concerto for Violin and Violoncello in A minor (1961)

1 First Movement: Allegro 14:31 2 Second Movement: Andante 6:36 3 Third Movement: Vivace Non Troppo 7:32 Jascha Heifetz – violin Gregor Piatigorsky – cello RCA Victor Symphony Orchestra Alfred Wallenstein – conductor

I have always enjoyed the Heifetz/Piatigorsky team in the Double Concerto. Here, Heifetz's urgency and intensity seem to perfectly complement Piatigorsky's open, warmly expressive style. Together, both soloists display a wonderfully engaging instrumental interplay replete with moments of sweep, reflectiveness and autumnal glow. Conductor Wallenstein provides an orchestral backdrop that very nicely dovetails with the main players. This interpretation has long been and continues to be my favorite among all Brahms Doubles I have heard. ---Jeffrey Lee, amazon.com
