The Piano Trios, written between 1784 and 1797, represent Haydn's art at its most enjoyable and fresh. Three of the trios in this recording were dedicated to Rebecca Schroeter, who lived in London and was a close friend of the composer. Trio No. 26 includes a version of the Adagio of Symphony No. 102, which it has been suggested was a favourite of hers. And the G major sports the famous 'Gypsy Rondo' finale (Rondo all'ongarese), one of the most ebullient and best loved movements in the entire repertoire. The Kungsbacka is one of the world's finest trios, and their Mozart trio set received outstanding reviews; "authentically felt and absorbingly communicated." (Gramophone) --- naxos.com
