Musicians: Abbey Lincoln – vocals David Liebman - Soprano Saxophone, Tenor Saxophone, Flute Hiromasa Suzuki – piano Kunimitsu Inaba – bass Al Foster – drums James Mtume – congas

The music on this out-of-print LP from the defunct Inner City label was recorded in Japan and has been released by several other record companies since. Abbey Lincoln's first record in a decade, the set features the very original singer joined by a couple of Japanese players (pianist Hiromasa Suzuki and bassist Kunimitsu Inaba) plus drummer Al Foster, percussionist Mtume and the horns (soprano, tenor and flute) of Dave Liebman. Abbey Lincoln wrote or co-composed all eight selections, best-known of which is "People in Me." Every Abbey Lincoln recording is well worth picking up for her sincerity, credibility and talent make each of her dates memorable in their own way. --- Scott Yanow, All Music Guide
