

Al Cohn & Zoot Sims - Motoring Along (1974)

Written by bluesever

Friday, 22 August 2014 16:43 -

Al Cohn & Zoot Sims - Motoring Along (1974)

01. Stockholm-L.A. 4:55 02. My Funny Valentine 8:51 03. Yardbird Suite 8:06 04. Motoring Along 4:56 05. Fallin' 7:16 06. What The World Needs Now 8:53 07. Stockholm - L.A. (Alternate Take) 4:06 08. Fallin' (Alternate Take) 6:24 09. What The World Needs Now (Alternate Take) 7:50 Al Cohn, Zoot Sims - Tenor Sax Horace Parlan – Piano Hugo Rasmussen - Bass Sven Erik Norregaard – Drums

Al Cohn and Zoot Sims were lifelong friends who were frequent collaborators both in the studios and in clubs. Cohn only led four recording sessions (two for tiny labels) during 1963-74; all featured Sims. For their Sonet date, Al and Zoot are joined by pianist Horace Parlan, bassist Hugo Rasmussen and drummer Sven Erik Norregaard and they perform three standards, two Cohn songs and Jimmy McGriff's "Motoring Along." Zoot plays some effective soprano on "Yardbird Suite." As usual the two saxophonists mutually inspire each other on the cool-toned but frequently-heated bop date. ---Scott Yanow, Rovi download: uploaded yandex 4shared mediafire solidfiles zalivalka cloudmailru filecl

oudio
anonfiles

back