

Stanley Turrentine – Hustlin' (2002)

Written by bluesever

Tuesday, 08 January 2013 17:16 - Last Updated Thursday, 14 May 2015 14:42

---

Stanley Turrentine – Hustlin' (2002)

1. "Trouble (No. 2)" (Harold Logan, Lloyd Price) - 7:48 2. "Love Letters" (Heyman, Young) - 7:38 3. "The Hustler" (Turrentine) - 6:02 4. "Lady Fingers" (Shirley Scott) - 6:21 5. "Something Happens to Me" (Marvin Fisher, Segal) - 6:15 6. "Goin' Home" (Anton Dvorak) - 7:02 Personnel: Stanley Turrentine - tenor saxophone Shirley Scott - organ Kenny Burrell - guitar Bob Cranshaw - bass Otis Finch – drums

This is a typically excellent recording from the husband-wife team of tenor saxophonist Stanley Turrentine and organist Shirley Scott. With assistance from guitarist Kenny Burrell, bassist Bob Cranshaw, and drummer Otis Finch, Turrentine (who always had the skill of playing melodies fairly straight but with his own brand of soul) and Scott dig into "Love Letters," Lloyd Price's "Trouble," "Something Happens to Me," a couple of basic originals, and "Goin' Home." The Turrentine-Scott team never made an unworthy disc; all are easily recommended, including this one. ---Scott Yanow, Rovi download: gett 4shared divshare

back