2012 live release from the Jazz pianist. Says Beegie: "Recorded over two nights at the wonderful performance space called 'The Cave' at the Nashville Jazz Workshop, we decided that our theme for the concerts would be simply the songs we love to perform, old chestnuts that we have played many times. We wanted the audience to feel they were in a small jazz club, and were hearing us as we sound on the road, in a club, on stage, or wherever we are playing live, instead of in a studio."
