

Atlantic Jazz – Kansas City (1986)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 12 April 2014 19:19 -

Atlantic Jazz – Kansas City (1986)

01. Big Joe Turner - You're Driving Me Crazy 02. Buck Clayton - Lamp Is Low 03. Jay McShann - Hootie Blues 04. Buster Smith - E-Flat Boogies 05. Jay McShann - Confessin' the Blues 06. Jay McShann - Jumpin' at the Woodside 07. Jay Turner - Until the Real Thing Comes 08. Buck Clayton - Undecided 09. T-Bone Walker - Evenin' 10. Buster Smith - Buster's Tune 11. Big Joe Turner - Piney Brown Blues Danny Barker - Guitar Lawrence Brown - Trombone Pete Brown - Sax (Alto) Eddie Cadell - Sax (Tenor) Buck Clayton - Trumpet Robert Cobbs - Drums Joe Comfort - Bass Leroy Cooper - Sax (Baritone) Vic Dickenson - Trombone Herman Flowers - Piano Marquis Foster - Drums Charles Gillum - Trumpet Freddie Green - Guitar Jim Hall - Guitar Milt Hinton - Bass Pete Johnson - Piano Plas Johnson - Sax (Tenor) Ray Johnson - Piano Jimmy Jones - Piano Barney Kessel - Guitar (Electric) Cliff Leeman - Drums Jay McShann - Piano, Piano (Electric), Vocals Joe Newman - Trumpet Jimmy Nottingham - Trumpet Walter Page - Bass Earl Palmer - Drums Charlie Persip - Drums Seldon Powell - Sax (Tenor) Paul Quinichette - Sax (Tenor) Gene Ramey - Bass R.S. Rankin - Guitar (Electric) Paul Ricard - Trumpet Jerome Richardson - Sax (Alto) John Scofield - Guitar (Electric) Hal Singer - Sax (Tenor) Buster Smith - Sax (Alto) Clinton Smith - Trombone Josea Smith - Bass Buddy Tate - Sax (Tenor) Big Joe Turner - Vocals T-Bone Walker - Guitar (Electric), Vocals Frank Wess - Sax (Tenor) Al Williams - Piano Jackie Williams - Drums

The Kansas City sound brought earthy yet lithe energy to both jazz and R&B: From the impulsive swing of Bennie Moten and Count Basie to Big Joe Turner's genre-straddling work, K.C.'s impact on music can be heard in rock, soul, and even funk. As part of its mammoth jazz box set, Atlantic spotlights such key K.C. figures as Jay McShann, alto saxophonist Buster Smith, and Turner himself. As a sort of potent aside, the disc also features some fine combo swing commandeered by Basie alum Vic Dickenson and Buck Clayton. And while the inclusion of T-Bone Walker is something of a mystery (a Texas native who worked out of L.A. for a good stretch), the inclusion of his cut of the classic "Evenin'" fits right into the flow here. Get out the whiskey and clear the dancefloor. --- Stephen Cook, Rovi

Atlantic Jazz – Kansas City (1986)

Written by bluesever

Saturday, 12 April 2014 19:19 -

download: uploaded yandex 4shared mediafire solidfiles mega zalivalka filecloudio
nornar
anonfiles
ziddu

back