If you love the ballad end of jazz, this is what you may have been seeking. Not in the least schmaltzy (It is Dexter Gordon, after all) or commercial. I hate jazz elevator music and believe me, this is straight up great stuff from the Hard Bop period. Great music from a great and now all too often forgotten or overlooked genius. I love it! Now if you love Dexter, you probably already know about the movie Round Midnight, but if you haven't seen this great flick, do get hold of a copy and watch it. A fabulous film starring Dexter Gordon. One of the great movies about jazz. ---Tom Sanders, amazon.com
