

Dick Hyman - From the Age of Swing (1994)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 04 September 2014 15:34 - Last Updated Friday, 26 September 2014 11:38

Dick Hyman - From the Age of Swing (1994)

1. Dick Hyman - From the Age of Swing (5:02) 2. Dick Hyman - You're Driving Me Crazy / Moten Swing (4:24) 3. Dick Hyman - Topsy (6:07) 4. Dick Hyman - Moonglow (3:24) 5. Dick Hyman - Them There Eyes (4:51) 6. Dick Hyman - Dooji Wooji (6:05) 7. Dick Hyman - Soft Winds (5:20) 8. Dick Hyman - What Is There to Say? (4:47) 9. Dick Hyman - 'Deed I Do (4:42) 10. Dick Hyman - Rose Room (4:31) 11. Dick Hyman - I Know What You Do (3:23) 12. Dick Hyman - Mean to Me (5:34) 13. Dick Hyman - I'm Getting Sentimental Over You (3:12) 14. Dick Hyman - From the Age of Swing (alternate take) (4:41)

Acoustic Bass – Milt Hinton
Drums – Butch Miles Guitar [Rhythm] – Bucky Pizzarelli Piano – Dick Hyman
Saxophone [Alto] – Frank Wess (5, 8, 12) Saxophone [Alto], Clarinet – Phil Bodner
Saxophone [Baritone] – Joe Temperley Trombone – Urbie Green Trumpet, Flugelhorn – Joe Wilder

Swing is everywhere these days, but it's seldom played with the consummately relaxed skill heard here, with Hyman leading a mid-sized band of celebrated veterans. Bucky Pizzarelli on guitar, Milt Hinton on bass, and Butch Miles on drums make up a perfect swing rhythm section, while the horns provide vitally individualistic sounds and ideas, from Joe Newman's sly, muted trumpet to Joe Temperley's gruffly sweet baritone saxophone. The repertoire provides an authentic portrait of the swing era, from the energetic "Moten Swing" through Ellington's "Dooji Wooji" and Fletcher Henderson's beautiful "Soft Winds" to the pop songs of the day, like "Moonglow" and "Them There Eyes." Hyman displays the same musicianship apparent in his solo piano recordings, making wondrous use of space to let the rhythm section shine through. ---Stuart Broomer, amazon.com download (mp3 @320 kbs):

uploaded 4shared mega solidfiles zalivalka cloudmailru filecloudio anonfiles oboo

Dick Hyman - From the Age of Swing (1994)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 04 September 2014 15:34 - Last Updated Friday, 26 September 2014 11:38

m

back