

George Russell - Live Rarities 1960 (2020)

Written by bluesever (Bogdan Marszałkowski)
Friday, 05 February 2021 10:31 -

George Russell - Live Rarities 1960 (2020)

*01 – Introduction 02 – Things New 03 – Dance Class 04 – Potting Shed 05 – Stratusphunk
06 – The Outer View 07 – Stratusphunk 08 – Volupte 09 – You Are My Sunshine 10 –
Around Midnight* Bass – Chuck Israels Drums – Joe Hunt Piano – David Lahm, George
Russell Tenor Saxophone – David Young Trombone – Dave Baker Trumpet – Al Kiger

Here is the maverick George Russell Sextet caught in a rare live recording from a concert held at Music Inn, in Lenox Massachusetts on September 1, 1960. George Russell's kaleidoscopic sound conception takes shape through the collective interplay of a brilliant tight band featuring George Russell himself on piano, Al Kiger - trumpet, Dave Baker - trombone, Dave Young - tenor sax, Chuck Israels - bass and Joe Hunt - drums. A great example of challenging modern and yet swinging Jazz, including highlights such as Russell's original "Stratusphunk" and an early Carla Bley's tune called "Dance Class". ---hhv.de download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto gett solidfiles

back