More than 20 years after their album "West Side Story", now cult released (BMG - 1997), André Ceccarelli rang the call of his accomplices Sylvain Beuf, Thomas Bramerie and Antonio Faraò to record the first album of their quartet, called ASTA . ASTA is the acronym for the names of these fabulous artists (André, Sylvain, Thomas and Antonio) who gathered at the Studio de Meudon in December 2018 to record this wonderful album "Passers of Time" which brings together eleven of their new original compositions. ---parisjazzclub.net
