Influenced by the gospel stylings of singers like Mahalia Jackson and Nina Simone, to noted contemporaries like Adele, Amy Winehouse, and even the White Stripes. Brenna's 7 song EP, aptly titled " I'll Be Fine " is a soulful blend of optimism and commentary on current events through the eyes of an adolescent musician. But don't be fooled, the maturity and tone of Brenna's soulful singing and songwriting shines through each cut. " I'll Be Fine" has a deep pocket and deep emotions to match. ---cdbaby.com

Brenna Parker is a 16 year old singer/songwriter hailing from Surrey, British Columbia. At 6 years of age, following the tragic loss of her friend, Brenna began to exhibit a kind and sensitive nature well beyond her years. Brenna was always acutely aware of the pain and sadness of others in addition to her own during this period. This sensitivity brought Brenna to a place of complex emotions and anxiety. In response, outside of a natural attraction to music, Brenna began to process life and its imperfections through playing piano, singing and writing songs. Like many artists, songwriting became her cathartic release. This collection of 7 songs is an introduction to what will most likely be a long and prolific musical career.
