I really enjoyed this album. I use it for my holiday gigs as the perfect appetizer at the beginning of the night. I enjoy the work of Eric & Daryl and can't wait to hear what is next from Minus2. -- DJ AmRo, amazon.com

As the world of contemporary jazz music continues to expand and diversify, In Season Music Group boldly introduces an innovative group with definitive style and substance. The brainchild of two talented brothers, Daryl and Eric Minus, Minus2 uniquely combines Jazz, Funk, Gospel, and R&B elements into a soul-stirring, colorful collage of urban instrumental artistry.

Between the two of them, the Minus brothers have been creating and performing diverse musical styles for almost 30 years. The two began their musical journey as horn players in elementary school with Daryl deciding to study trumpet and Eric choosing to pursue the saxophone. After years of developing an instrumental foundation from their exposure to classical and jazz music, the undeniable influences of gospel and funk eventually became well known components of the Minus Repertoire. As their musical horizons broadened, the Minus brothers picked up new instruments: Daryl gravitated towards the piano, and Eric focused his energies on the bass, guitar, and drums. The evolution of the Minus2 sound has been years in the making. The Brothers have now come full circle to create a signature sound of the own,
