

Buscemi - Retro Nuevo (2006)

Written by bluelover

Tuesday, 14 June 2011 22:02 - Last Updated Saturday, 11 July 2015 09:04

Buscemi - Retro Nuevo (2006)

A1. Lost (5:59) A2. Jazz Jumper (4:22) A3. Nao Falo Portugues (3:43) B1. Brasileiras (3:57) B2. Sahib (4:26) B3. Collapsing In An Elegant Way (4:59) C1. Bollywood Swing King (4:42) C2. Medusa (3:43) play C3. Jumilla (4:03) play D1. Isolada Do Mundo (4:48) D2. Nothing To Worry About (4:07) D3. Retro Nuevo (4:18)

Fourth album from Belgian producer Dirk Swartenbroeckx (AKA Buscemi). His style is deep and often difficult to categorize: Nu Bossa, Nu Lounge, House Music, Brazilian Grooves, Afrobeat, Drum 'n Bass... Dance music with a Latin feel is maybe the best description of the sound of Buscemi. There are some lovely bossa moments on Retro Nuevo, but so much more. Dutch singer Fay Lovsky contributed her words and vocals to the charming 'Nao falo português'. Viviani Godoy conquered the broken beats of the pleasing 'Isolada do Mundo'. African singer Alexia Waku laid the funky 'Jumilla'. Dag Taeldeman (A Brand) brought the chemistry of 'Medusa'. Even the great Isabelle Antena returns with another superb performance on the lovely and chilled 'Nothing to worry about'. The album was preceded by the storming Electro Jazz-Club single 'Jazz Jumper', that got excellent response from DJ's worldwide. EMI. 2007.

download:

uploaded yandex 4shared mega mediafire solidfiles zalivalka cloudmailru oboom

Buscemi - Retro Nuevo (2006)

Written by bluelover

Tuesday, 14 June 2011 22:02 - Last Updated Saturday, 11 July 2015 09:04

back