In 2009, back from her first European tour, Amed collaboration with pianist composer Adrián Iaies ended up in a duo album: Cinemateca finlandesa, released on September, 2010 by Acqua Records.

It includes original versions of classic authors as Thelonious Monk or the Argentine folk songwriter Gustavo “Cuchi” Leguizamón. This album was played for many enthusiastic audiences and it received laudatory reviews by national media and specialized critics all over Argentina.

“On one side, some beautiful songs and two excellent musicians, one pianist, the other one, singer. On the other side, an idea. The resources are minimal. And the results belongs to an endangered breed: that of the great albums”. PÁGINA 12 August 11th, 2010 “Inside the genres” by Diego Fischerman --- roxana-amed.com
