Splendid Gorme singing Latin material in English and Spanish with her great proficiency and feeling with the extraordinary help of arranger Don Costa.

'I Feel So Spanish' is a classic album of Latin Music even when Ms. Gorme sings part of the repertoire in English. Maybe it works for the American audience but the classic 'Adiós' could never be translated.

Anyway, there are some great cream songs here. 'La Puerta' is a killer and so is 'Te Quiero Assí' both sung in Spanish. Also 'My Heart' is an inspired composition with a beautiful rendition and arrangement. ---Carlos from Rio, amazon.com
