Los Incas have been around since the 60's when they recorded with Paul Simon of Simon & Garfunkel El Condor Pasa, Kacharpari and other songs. They also appeared with him in 1965 at the Theatre d'Est Parisienne in Paris. This group uses only authentic Andean Instruments such as the Quena, Charango, La Antara & Senka Tenkana. This is Andean music at its best - melodic, rythmic, evocative, and unique. --- Lillian M. Matthews, amazon.com
