Radiating extreme energy, bright lights and amazing sounds, Ultraviolet Sound truly breaks through the mold of “Pop” and “Electro”. The underground sensation is set to blow the lid off 2011 and share their message with audiences worldwide. Ultraviolet Sound, also known as UVS first formed in 2007 and from day one, live performances is where the duo shines. They toured nonstop for a year and a half as well performing alongside the likes of Lady Gaga, Katy Perry, and many more. Upon the end of touring, they dedicated 12 full months to writing, engineering and producing their first full-length label debut. Their first single “Suck My Kiss” is co-written with Desmond Child and debuted at #46 on the Billboard Dance Chart. The band's first digital release was appropriately titled "O.C.D. (Obsessive Compulsive Dancing)." According to Hudson, “A quote we use to summarize what UVS is all about comes from our track 'Dead On The Dancefloor', where I sing ‘strip away your limitations’ and I urge listeners to live life to the fullest and DANCE THEIR HEARTS OUT!” UVS, has attracted major attention from celebrity blogger Perez Hilton, Los Angeles Times, LA Weekly, 944 Magazine, Interview Magazine, Las Vegas City Life and arjanwrites.com. Also, UVS’s work has been featured on several national airtime TV shows; MTV’s “The Hills” & “Real World”, ABC’s “Castle” & “The Beautiful Life”, Lifetime, Oprah and The Bernie Mac Show among others. With so many notches on their belt it is no surprise that the duo has the crowd eating out of the palm of their hands, and more importantly, shaking their asses! --- ultravioletsound.com
