

Creed – My Own Prison (1997)

Written by bluesever

Sunday, 20 December 2009 10:33 - Last Updated Wednesday, 10 January 2018 20:24

Creed – My Own Prison (1997)

1. Torn
2. Ode
3. My Own Prison
4. Pity For A Dime
5. In America
6. Illusion
7. Unforgiven
8. Sister
9. What's This Life For
10. One

Brian Marshall - Bass Scott Phillips - Drums Scott Stapp - Vocals Mark Tremonti - Guitar, Vocals

Originally released on the band's own label, Creed's debut album, My Own Prison, was re-released on Wind-Up Records in a remixed form. The remix was designed to accentuate the group's powerful post-grunge sound so it could find a crossover audience. Evidently, the gambit was successful since the album became a platinum hit shortly after the title track was issued as a single. Creed don't have an original or distinctive sound -- they basically fall into the category of post-Seattle bands who temper their grunge with a dose of Live earnestness -- but they work well within their boundaries. At their best, they are a solid post-grunge band, grinding their riffs out with muscle; at their worst, they are simply faceless. The best moments of My Own Prison suggest they'll be able to leave post-grunge anonymity behind and develop their own signature sound. ---Stephen Thomas Erlewine, AllMusic Review download (mp3 @320 kbs):

Creed – My Own Prison (1997)

Written by bluesever

Sunday, 20 December 2009 10:33 - Last Updated Wednesday, 10 January 2018 20:24

yandex mediafire uloz.to cloudmailru gett

back