Concert 2007

This is Taraunturas release -- it is NOT complete, NQ cut & MMH cut but in contrast to EVSD's
"complete version" this has not been compressed to hell and back so this should not wind up banned for lossy, the mix on this is kind of nice compared to the pre-boot version in that the guitar & bass have both been brought up a bit in the mix making the sound a bit fuller IMHO.
There was also a version here that was "restored" by splicing part of NQ & MMH from evsd lossy version to the pre-boot making a frankenstein version of very questionable lineage.

Several months ago four songs, "Good Times Bad Times," "For Your Life," "Since I've Been Loving You" and "Rock And Roll" from Led Zeppelin's rehearsal for the O2 reunion surfaced in very good sound quality. They were pressed, along with other interesting outtakes, on Countdown (Boogie Mama). The soundboard recording was excellent, but Jimmy Page's guitar was buried down in the mix. Soon afterwards Tarantura released The Triumph Rehearsals: Guitar On Version. It features almost the entire two hour rehearsal. It misses significant portions of "No Quarter" and "Misty Mountain Hop," both cutting out after two and a half minutes. The sound is excellent and Page's guitar, buried on the four tracks, sounds much louder. It is known
