Distributed in Europe, the Kuschelrock series is often uneven in its attempts to throw pop hits of all stripes together in one package, taking little consideration into the fact that most people don't have wildly diverse taste in music. The seventh volume of the series is quite scattershot, bounding from early-'80s arena rock to ultrahumble '90s alternative rock without much thought, not to mention including some singles that fall well outside of that range. Included: George Benson's "Greatest Love of All," Soul Asylum's "Runaway Train," Air Supply's "All Out of Love," Patty Smyth's "Sometimes Love Just Ain't Enough," and Mr. Big's "Just Take My Heart." ---Andy Kellman, AllMusic Review
