David González - bass Josu Luengo - guitar Haritz Lete - vocals Ekain Elorza - drums

Labelled by the critics as “Thriller rock” due to the influence of action movies and TV series in their lyrics, this rock/metal band from the Basque Country was formed back in 2006 by David González (Bass - Berri Txarrak , TT L.T.) and Josu Luengo (Guitar - Evirus69). Later on Haritz Lete (Vocals- Kokein) and Ekain Elorza (Drums - Dinero) joined them establishing the actual line-up.

This time the band faces a new adventure. Covering classic film’s themes and scores. Cobra’s new work entitled “Covered (a selection of film scores)” (Kaiowas records, 2012), features five tracks with sonic landscapes turned into classic style rock/metal songs. A true challenging endeavour, knee-deep in experimentation, that gets the band a step further in its discography. COBRA tries, once again, to unify two worlds that traditionally are usually experienced together, music and cinema.

“The strangest vengeance ever planned”. Touch of evil (Orson Welles). metaleuskadi.com
