

UFO - Too Hot To Handle - The Very Best Of UFO (2012)

Written by bluesever

Sunday, 26 February 2012 19:39 - Last Updated Sunday, 17 March 2019 23:05

UFO - Too Hot To Handle - The Very Best Of UFO (2012)

CD1: 01 – Doctor Doctor 02 – Only You Can Rock Me 03 – Let It Roll 04 – Shoot Shoot 05 – Too Hot To Handle 06 – Young Blood 07 – Lonley Heart 08 – Let It Rain 09 – When Its Time To Rock 10 – Rock Bottom 11 – Oh My 12 – Crystal Light 13 – Love Lost Love 14 – Natural Thing 15 – Im A Loser 16 – Can You Roll Her play 17 – Just Another Suicide 18 – Night Run 19 – Space Child

CD2:

01 – Hot N Ready 02 – Back Into My Life 03 – Gettin Ready 04 – Pack It Up And Go 05 – Love To Love 06 – Aint No Baby 07 – Lettin Go 08 – This Fire Burns Tonight 09 – Gone In The Night 10 – Chains Chains

play

11 – Long Gone 12 – The Wild The Willing & The Innocent 13 – Its Killing Me 14 – The Writer 15 – Doing It All For You 16 – This Time 17 – Lookin Out For No 1 18 – High Flyer

UFO: Phil Mogg - Vocals Vinnie Moore - Guitar Andy Parker - Drums Paul Raymond - Keyboards/Guitar

There are even more stories about UFO than they've composed songs. Any band who have been in the music business for more than 40 years are bound to have experienced difficult times, but also dazzling successes and spectacular events. UFO's success story began in London way back in 1969, when vocalist Phil Mogg, drummer Andy Parker, guitarist Mick Bolton and bassist Pete Way formed the group. Even in the Seventies, the band distinguished themselves with their very own, unmistakable style, touching a nerve among their growing following with rock numbers like 'Prince Kajuku', 'Follow You Home' or 'C'mon Everybody' from their albums UFO 1, Flying and UFO Live.

The global breakthrough arrived when German guitarist, Michael Schenker, joined the fold in 1973, having left his band Scorpions to follow an offer by Phil Mogg and Pete Way. UFO released three consecutive rock classics with Schenker (Phenomenon (1974), Force It (1975) and No Heavy Pettin' (1976)), featuring classics like 'Doctor Doctor', 'Shoot, Shoot', or 'Rock

UFO - Too Hot To Handle - The Very Best Of UFO (2012)

Written by bluesever

Sunday, 26 February 2012 19:39 - Last Updated Sunday, 17 March 2019 23:05

Bottom'. Following the arrival of keyboarder/rhythm guitarist Paul Raymond, UFO released their two studio albums Lights Out (1977) and Obsession (1978), including the hit singles 'Too Hot To Handle', 'Lights Out' and 'Only You Can Rock Me'. Their live cut Strangers In The Night came out in 1979 and is referred to by the press to this day as one of the best live releases of all time, while also signalling the end of the Mogg, Way, Schenker, Parker & Raymond line-up.

The reorganised band underwent fifteen years marked by various eras and numerous line-up changes. To everyone's surprise, autumn 1993 saw the return of the former UFO line-up consisting of Mogg, Way, Schenker, Parker and Raymond. This new edition of the classic team brought out Walk On Water, their first joint effort after one and a half decades, and embarked on a world tour. However, Schenker left UFO during the Walk On Water tour again to continue working with his own group, MSG, while Mogg & Way went on to release their second album, Chocolate Box. The UFO albums Covenant and Sharks, recorded by Mogg, Way and Schenker, arrived at the stores in 2000 and 2002. Vinnie Moore went on to follow in Schenker's footsteps, who had returned to MSG, recording the songs on You Are Here with Jason Bonham. During the subsequent world tour, UFO cut a show in Germany, which was later released on the live album, Showtime, and the same-named DVD featuring additional bonus material. Later, Bonham bid his farewells and UFO's original drummer Andy Parker returned on The Monkey Puzzle (2006) and its successor The Visitor (2009). So with Phil Mogg, Paul Raymond and Andy Parker, the band today consists of three original members, plus American guitar slinger Vinnie Moore – the perfect complement. ---ufo-music.info download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto cloudmail.ru bayfiles

back