

Fleetwood Mac - Wallingford (1975)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 31 March 2014 16:40 - Last Updated Tuesday, 06 March 2018 22:35

Fleetwood Mac - Wallingford (1975)

01 - Get Like You Used To Be 02 - Station Man 03 - Spare Me A Little 04 - Rhiannon 05 - Why 06 - Landslide 07 - Over My Head 08 - I'm So Afraid 09 - Oh Well 10 - The Green Manalishi 11 - World Turning Lineup: Lindsey Buckingham - guitar, vocals Stevie Nicks - vocals Christine McVie - keyboard, vocals John McVie - bass Mick Fleetwood – drums

Fleetwood Mac recorded in front of a small audience at the Trodd Nossel Studios in Wallingford, Connecticut. This is from September 23, 1975 a few months after releasing a record with the bands name that is also known as White Album and turned to be highly successful saleswise.

One of the very first Mac concerts with Lindsay Buckingham & Stevie Nicks, it provides a rare opportunity to hear the new lineup perform such classics as “Hypnotized”, “Spare Me a Little” and “Why”.

download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire uloz.to gett

Fleetwood Mac - Wallingford (1975)

Written by bluesever

Monday, 31 March 2014 16:40 - Last Updated Tuesday, 06 March 2018 22:35

back