

Scott Weiland & The Wildabouts - Blaster (2015)

Written by bluesever

Thursday, 02 April 2015 15:30 - Last Updated Tuesday, 08 January 2019 15:20

---

Scott Weiland & The Wildabouts - Blaster (2015)

1. Modzilla 2. Way She Moves 3. Hotel Rio 4. Amethyst 5. White Lightning 6. Blue Eyes
7. Bleed Out 8. Youth Quake 9. Beach Pop 10. Parachute 11. 20th Century Boy 12. Circles
Scott Weiland - vocals Jeremy Brown – guitar Tommy Black – bass Danny Thompson - drums

For Blaster, his first solo album in seven years, Scott Weiland headed into the studio with his new backing band called the Wildabouts — they previously supported the singer on his "Purple at the Core" 2013 tour, where he sang hits from the Stone Temple Pilots — and producer Rick Parker, who previously worked with Black Rebel Motorcycle Club, Tyler Hilton, and the Hangmen. Together, they got back to Weiland's basics, kicking out a record that drew heavily on the psychedelic and glam sounds that have long been his obsessions while retaining the fresh, infectious spirit of a brand-new band. --- itunes.apple.com download (mp3 @320 kbs):

yandex mediafire ulozto cloudmailru gett bayfiles

back