Nine Treasures have taken the rules for great metal and thrown them out and none too soon. This is the best live metal album I've heard in years. Favorite track: Nomin Dalai. ---Cheryl Claussen, ninetreasures.bandcamp.com

I love hearing folk metal from different cultures and these guys are a superb example of what amazing music can be created through the fusion of local music styles and metal. I've also had the pleasure of seeing them live and strongly recommend it if you get the chance. ---The Naked DJ, ninetreasures.bandcamp.com
