

B.B. King – Live At The Regal (1964)

Wpisany przez bluesever

Wtorek, 27 Październik 2009 15:59 - Zmieniony Poniedziałek, 02 Wrzesień 2013 14:37

---

B.B. King – Live At The Regal (1964)

B. B. King - Live at The Regal Tracks: 01 Every Day I Have the Blues - ( Intro by Pervis Spann ) 02 Sweet Little Angel 03 It's My Own Fault 04 How Blue Can You Get 05 Please Love Me 06 You Upset Me Baby - ( Intro by Rodney James ) 07 Worry, Worry 08 Woke up This Mornin' 09 You Done Lost Your Good Thing Now 10 Help the Poor Personnel:
B.B. King – guitar, vocals    Leo Lauchie – bass    Duke Jethro – piano    Sonny Freeman – drums    Bobby Forte, Johnny Board – tenor saxophone

B.B. King is not only a timeless singer and guitarist, he's also a natural-born entertainer, and on Live at the Regal the listener is treated to an exhibition of all three of his talents. Over percolating horn hits and rolling shuffles, King treats an enthusiastic audience (at some points, they shriek after he delivers each line) to a collection of some of his greatest hits. The backing band is razor-sharp, picking up the leader's cues with almost telepathic accuracy. King's voice is rarely in this fine of form, shifting effortlessly between his falsetto and his regular range, hitting the microphone hard for gritty emphasis and backing off in moments of almost intimate tenderness. Nowhere is this more evident than at the climax of "How Blue Can You Get," where the Chicago venue threatens to explode at King's prompting. Of course, the master's guitar is all over this record, and his playing here is among the best in his long career. Displaying a jazz sensibility, King's lines are sophisticated without losing their grit. More than anything else, Live at the Regal is a textbook example of how to set up a live performance. Talking to the crowd, setting up the tunes with a vignette, King is the consummate entertainer. Live at the Regal is an absolutely necessary acquisition for fans of B.B. King or blues music in general. A high point, perhaps even the high point, for uptown blues. --- Daniel Gioffre, All Music Guide download: uploaded anonfiles mega 4shared mixturecloud yandex mediafire ziddu

back

B.B. King – Live At The Regal (1964)

Wpisany przez bluesever

Wtorek, 27 Październik 2009 15:59 - Zmieniony Poniedziałek, 02 Wrzesień 2013 14:37

---