Danser's third album, Passin'-A-Time, takes us with her from the wheat fields of Saskatchewan to the cotton fields of Mississippi. Danser has a deep passion, understanding and respect for Delta blues, one of the earliest forms of North American popular music, and has made several study trips to the Mississippi Delta, drawing heavily on the rich and fertile musical climate there. This new album is a testament to those cultural encounters. Rich in tradition yet modernistic in tone, Passin'-A-Time chronicles her unique musical journey along the rivers and rails of this continent. --- annapoliscountyspectator.ca
