

Cannonball Adderley Quintet in Chicago (1959)

Wpisany przez bluesever

Poniedziałek, 06 Sierpień 2012 16:33 - Zmieniony Sobota, 09 Sierpień 2014 21:27

Cannonball Adderley Quintet in Chicago (1959)

1. Limehouse Blues (Philip Braham, Douglas Furber) - 4:40 2. Stars Fell on Alabama (Mitchell Parish, Frank Perkins) - 6:15 3. Wabash (Adderley) - 5:46 4. Grand Central (Coltrane) - 4:33 5. You're a Weaver of Dreams (Jack Elliott, Victor Young) - 5:34 6. The Sleeper (Coltrane) - 7:13
Personnel Cannonball Adderley - alto saxophone (except on #5) John Coltrane - tenor saxophone (except on #2) Wynton Kelly - piano Paul Chambers - bass Jimmy Cobb – drums

This exciting session consists of the 1959 edition of The Miles Davis Sextet minus its leader, though it was later reissued as Cannonball & Coltrane, as there was evidence that both men had considerable input into the date. A brisk "Limehouse Blues" features great exchanges between the saxophonists, while Adderley's soulful "Wabash" is more easygoing. This newly remastered CD is a distinct improvement over the earlier retitled reissue. ---Ken Dryden, Rovi download: uploaded yandex 4shared mediafire solidfiles mega zalivalka filecloudio

anonfiles
oboom

back