I have this vinyl - I have converted mine to CD, but my conversion software doesn't enable to remove the "noise floor" of the vinyl.

This guy is the best I've heard playing the Waltzes (unfortunately not Chopin's complete Waltzes, as that would probably take a 4-record set.)

Malcuzyński was a pupil of the great Ignace Paderewski (concert pianist & Prime Minister of Poland between the Wars - whom my father saw perform in Melbourne Town Hall in 1920.)

I have Vladimir Ashkenazy playing the complete Chopin Waltzes on CD, BUT his performances just don't measure up to Malcuzyński's, which are so more relaxed, 'chilled-out', but with so much warmth & passion, and perfect head-spinning rubato. Highly recommended. --- Mr. Carl G. Tuckwell, amazon.com
