Z okazji 18-lecia Habakuk wydał płytę "Family Front", na którą trafiły nagrania z gościnnym udziałem czołówki polskich i zagranicznych wokalistów. Na albumie pojawili się m.in. Don Carlos (założyciel Black Uhuru), Mikey Dread (producent UB40, The Clash), Muniek Staszczuk (T.Love), Ras Luta (EastWest Rockers), Junior Stress (LSM), Renata Przemyk, Mercedes z legendarnego R.A.P. (aktualnie z DiM) i wschodząca gwiazda światowego reggae - angielska wokalistka Ava Leigh. Remiks utworu z Muńkiem zrobił DJ Adamus. Album w naturalny sposób łączy scenę żywego grania reggae ze sceną sound systemową. Jest swego rodzaju powrotem do korzeni. Szatę graficzną do płyty tradycyjnie przygotowała grupa Szumlaska, czyli Artur Szumlask - naczelnny kreator wizji Habakuk, autor wielu tekstów, zdjęć, obrazów, plakatów, wizualizacji. ----muzyka.interia.pl
